

Joy

Anthony Wright

Lyrics

Close your eyes,
Listen to the hum of the spirit
Your trial is done and your day is new.

There's no time for being blue
Joy way down, you can feel it too,
Feel it chase away the blues.

Joy, joy, joy,
When it feels impossible,
Joy, joy, joy,
When the choice is optional,
Something you can't destroy, joy
Is what I feel, oh, It's so real.

Hold your light,
As you travel through the valley,
When you feel it in your soul,
You'll never tire.

When you smile you conquer the fire
After storms roll, glee will fall and joy ignite
Growing til your spirit glows.

I go to prepare a place for you
With my joy in my pocket and my love for you
Close your eyes, feel it in your soul,
Let your joy live inside of you and go on.
